

A Gourmet Food and Wine Tour of South Africa
March/April 2010 & October/November 2010
Final Dates to be decided

Jeremy Wilkinson, a leading importer of South African wine,
Is proud to present a simply delightful, totally unique, behind the scenes Wine

This exclusive tour, led by Jeremy Wilkinson, “Wine Coach” of 4 Wines plus more will include several unprecedented visits to a carefully selected handful of some of the country’s most exclusive wine estates, offering both enthusiasts and wine industry professionals who join this trip a unique look at this internationally acclaimed and award winning wine country in a way not normally possible, including private cellar tours and dinners hosted by the wine makers.

Wine and Dine is the very finest South African Restaurants and Wine Estates

Lanzerac Manor

Lanzerac, established in 1692, is famous not only for its wines, but also for its 5 Star Restaurant and 5 Star hotel set in the most magnificent surroundings. This is a true jewel of a vineyard, as it boasts one of the most modern wine cellars in the cape and is nestled in beautiful Stellenbosch.

Excursions into vibrant Cape Town and along the coast to the Cape Peninsula are included, as well as a three night stay in Sun City at the Palace of the Lost City (South Africa's Bellagio). Accommodations are absolutely first class throughout and gourmet dining at some of the best restaurants in South Africa will be the norm.

The Lost Palace At Sun City

“A TASTE OF THE WINELANDS AND SAFARI FINALE”

All Travel dates and hotel accommodations subject to availability

For more information contact:

JJWloveswine@sbol.com ; Phone 310 375 4313